

Thank you for your interest in subscribing to the QBank online testing system for agricultural science education! To begin, please read the instructions below regarding your Missouri CDE Test Bank – PDF Only subscription.

What is included with this subscription?

This subscription includes access to generate a PDF exam and key for each exam in the Missouri CDE Test Bank. Once your chapter subscribes to this subscription, only the teachers will have access to the system to generate the PDFs. Your students will not have access login to the system to generate the exams. If you would like for your students to have access to the exams, please subscribe to the full Missouri CDE Test Bank.

How do I subscribe?

Teachers can subscribe to this and other question banks by accessing <http://quiz.judgingcard.com/subscribe.aspx>. Choose the subscription you would like to purchase and click Subscribe. You will be asked to enter your JudgingCard.com chapter credentials. After you enter your username and password, you will be signed into the QBank system.

Are questions combined into one question bank or divided by year?

Each question bank is divided by CDE type as well as year. Questions from different years are not combined. Each time an exam is generated, the questions are pulled again at random and will not be in the same order as before.

How do my students access QBank?

Your students will not be able to access QBank with this subscription. This subscription only allows you to generate PDF copies of each exam through the Teacher login.

When does my subscription end?

Subscriptions are valid through May 31st.

How much does this subscription cost?

The Missouri CDE Test Bank (PDF Only) is available for $20.00/year.
